Admiral Stansfield Turner, USN
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Nancy and I would like to congratulate you on your appointment. I was not surprised when I read about your nomination, as I expected you to receive something comparable.

I have become concerned about the future of the CIA since Watergate, etc., knowing the importance of Intelligence and fearing the Congressional moves to control it. I believe that all government agencies must be strictly controlled but that Intelligence presents a special problem. I believe that the only answer to that problem is the personal integrity of the director. I now feel comfortable that the important roll of Intelligence will continue without the inherent abuse of power in a secretive organization. I am confident that the Congress will share these feelings in the future as you tighten your control over the agency.

Very respectfully,
